Tuesday August 30, 1932 (Page 17): DEATH OF MR. H. HOCKING  WELL KNOWN FIGURE IN PERTH SOCIAL WELFARE AND BENEVOLENT ACTIVITIES.  Perth, Aug. 25.  Mr. Herbert Hocking, J.P., for many years a prominent figure in Perth stock broking circles and social welfare and benevolent activities, died last night at his home in Palmerston-street. Mr. Hocking was born in Rundle-street, Adelaide, on March 19, 1850. The Sir John Barleycorn Hotel is now standing on the site of his parent's home. Thirty seven years ago he followed his brothers, Sidney and Percy, to West Australia, but, unlike them, he did not go to the goldfields, but remained in Perth and commenced stockbroking, also acting as Perth commercial representative of the "Kalgoorlie Miner." The Miner" was founded by his brothers. He was a familiar figure on the Terrace. Mr. Hocking was keenly interested in the advancement of his fellow men and in public affairs generally until the day of his death. He was a member of the Perth Stock Exchange and 29 years ago he was largely responsible for the formation of the Wanneroo Road Board and remained a member of that body from its inception until about two years ago, when he resigned. During the 20 years of his association with it he filled the office of chairman. Thirty-three years association with the School for the Blind terminated two years ago, when he resigned from active participation in the affairs of the school. For 18 years he carried out the duties of honorary secretary to the institution. Shortly after he arrived in Perth Mr. Hocking was appointed as a member of the Perth Hospital Board, and held the position for four years. For many years he was associated with the W.A. auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and was a life vice-president throughout his life. In the State he was closely identified with the Trinity Church, Perth, and was active in all movements for the uplift of church work generally. Amongst other of his appointments he was a member of the now defunct Caves Board, of which the late Sir Winthrop Hackett was chairman. He held a commission of peace for West Australia and South Australia. He is survived by a widow, eight children, 27 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

(Mr. E. W. Hocking, who had come to Kalgoorlie for the racing carnival returned to Perth by the express last night).

1940-1986: Vittorino Da Re

1940-1945: Place remains unoccupied. It is possible that during this time Vittorino Da Re was working on the place. (Source: Mills, 2014)

1945: Da Re Family move into 82 Palmerston Street. The house was reportedly shared with the Marchioros Family (occupying Bedroom 2 and Bedroom 3). During this time Bedroom 3 was utilised as a secondary kitchen and washhouse. (Source: Mills, 2014)

1952: Planning permission granted for the construction of a new garage to the rear of the lot to replace the former stables.

1960's: Da Re Family build a house in North Perth and 82 Palmerston Street is rented out and possibly run as a brothel.

Aerial imagery from 1981 and a photograph from 1984 indicate that the corrugated roof sheets were heavily oxidised. (Source: Landgate Mapviewer, 1981)

1986: House sold for $100,000.

1986-1988: Richard Prosser

At the time of purchase the place was in poor condition and up for demolition.

Following the purchase, the place was renovated to repair damage, extend the kitchen to include a bay window, enclose and extend the area to the rear which included creating a new sitting area.

Following the works Prosser obtained permission to run a bed and breakfast from the place. During this time it was known as "Beechwood House" and was the first gay bed and breakfast house in Perth (Source: Mills, 2014). The place charged $50 per room per night and had five bedrooms available for guests.

1988: Swimming pool installed to the backyard.

1988-1998: Peter Carter

Purchased by Peter Carter, owner of Crosby Tiles, however he did not initially live in the residence.

1988-1991: The place is rented out to Richard Prosser and continues to run as a bed and breakfast.

1991: Carter occupies the residence and makes a number of changes to the place including installing a high brick fence to the rear of the property, replaced tiles to the back extension, bathrooms and toilets.

It possible that during this time the roof was painted green (Source: Landgate Mapviewer, 1989).

	1996: 82 Palmerston Street is rented out. 1998-Present: Anne Dominique Mills Purchased in October 1998 for $660,000. 1999: Works are undertaken to the place which included replacing the roof with its current corrugated steel roof, installing a bullnose verandah which extends along the extent of the southern elevation, rewiring the house, new landscaping to the front garden, and an electronic gate to the front entrance. (Builders: Cambuild) 2005: Works are undertaken to the place for a sum of $180,000. The works included bathroom extension (2x ensuite and 2x walk-in robes) constructed to the north of the place, reverse cycle air conditioning installed throughout the house, cedar ceiling installed to rear 'playroom' and new jarrah and iron staircase to the rear of the house. (Builder: NuChange) 2007: Gazebo installed adjacent to the garage and rear landscaping undertaken around the pool. 2019: solar panels attached to north pitch of roof. There is no information on when the external brick walls were rendered. However, photography from 1984 suggests that it may have occurred during the occupation by Da Re family. In 1994, a suburb in the City of Wanneroo was named 'Hocking' after Herbert Hocking.
