Recession Busting!

The Town of Vincent is pleased to announce that a series of free financial information sessions will be held this June.

"These are uncertain economic times and many people are anxious about their financial futures. The Global Financial Crisis is impacting the world economies and many in the community, even if not directly affected by the recession, are unsure about how to best manage their finances. These free sessions will provide general information and practical strategies that people can use as a basis for their individual situations", enthused Mayor Nick Catania.

The sessions are being held on Tuesdays throughout June in the Library & Local History Centre:
